There are now but two lines not given in this RAILROAD GUIDE, owing to the fact that they both run out of the city, and in the city proper but for a few blocks. These are the Monastery and Central avenue lines, which run from the terminus of the Hoboken Elevated Road North to West Hoboken, Monastery, Schuetzen Park, Union Hill, etc. Persons from New York wishing to reach points north of the terminus of the Hoboken elevated railroad are advised to take Barclay street or Christopher street ferries to Hoboken, then the elevated cable road from Hoboken to the Heights, and transfer at Palisade avenue to all points North. At this point passengers are also transferred to car running to Newark avenue, opposite Hudson County Court House.
